

THE PLANET NEWS

HEADLINE BOX

Choose one that will grab readers' attention, or invent your own.

You can change the size of this or any box in your article.

LEAD PARAGRAPH

Write an opening paragraph that gives a quick answer to the reader's questions:

What is the story about?

Who is it about?

Where is it taking place?

Why is it happening now?

When is it happening?

Include an eye catching picture

You can write this paragraph, and the rest of the article, in two columns.

BYLINE BOX

Stick the names of the writers in your group here.

Describe the story, to answer 'what, who, where, why' in more detail.

MAIN STORY

Think of questions you want to ask the scientist.

Concentrate on the 'hooks' – things that keep readers' interest, e.g:

- emotions
- surprising things
- life-changing things
- certain facts

Include a quote from the scientist.

Do not put detailed scientific explanations here.

SCIENCE BOX 1

Write about the first area of science here.

Think of questions you want to ask the scientist.

SCIENCE BOX 2

Write about the second area of science here.

Think of questions you want to ask the scientist.

SCIENCE BOX 3

Write about the third area of science here.

Think of questions you want to ask the scientist.