Celebrating Ten Years of Research and Innovation

Sheffield Hallam University Knowledge Applied
Sheffield Institute of Education

our team

60+ research-active staff

- 13 professors
- 4 associate professors

30+ staff designated as having significant responsibility for research

40+ staff whose research & innovation activity was submitted in REF2021

where we work

research & innovation activity in over 30 countries, including:

Azerbaijan, Bulgaria, China, Colombia, Cyprus, England, Estonia, France, Georgia, Germany, Ghana, Greece, India, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Jordan, Lithuania, Malaysia, the Netherlands, Norway, Pakistan, Romania, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Switzerland, Thailand, Turkey, Vietnam and Wales

funding

£2m around per year in external funding for research & innovation

- from educational settings, schools, colleges and multi-academy trusts
- from local authorities
- from government departments and government-funded bodies
- from charitable trusts and foundations outputs

every year, our staff produce around:

30	30	12	10	7
peer-reviewed journal articles	national and international conference presentations	blog posts	project reports	books and book chapters

our work

we are involved in around

50

active research & innovation projects each year impact

Four REF Impact Case Studies in 2021

- Shifting the discourse around LGBT+ lives through sociological research
- Improving the effectiveness of higher education widening participation programmes
- Improving teacher professional development by shaping policy, encouraging investment and developing practice
- Influencing debate, design and practice around toilets and accessibility