

There are loads of hero jobs out there,
many of which you might be able to do!

To help you to find out what job might suit you, answer these multiple-choice questions. There is no right or wrong answer, just choose which feels right for you. When you have finished, count up how many of each letter you got.

You wake up to an unexpected snow day. What do you do?

- A Run off to the nearest sledging slope, stuffing a first aid kit in your pocket as you leave.
- B Throw snowballs with the young children who live in your street.
- C Use a drill to make a sledge from string and a tray.
- D Pack a bag with snacks and spare clothes before meeting your friends outside.

You are at the bus station. There is a long wait for your bus. What do you do?

- A Check on your phone to find out why it's late.
- B Get your book from your bag, sit and read.
- C Sit down and make origami animals.
- D Check you've got what you need for the trip and let someone know you'll be late.

Which of these TV programmes do you enjoy most?

- A Shows about real-life drama such as Casualty and Police Camera Action.
- B Nature documentary shows such as Planet Earth and Frozen Planet.
- C Shows where people make things such as Bake Off and Sewing Bee.
- D Quiz shows where the contestants complete tasks such as Taskmaster and The Apprentice.

You have half an hour at a shopping centre. What do you do?

- A Sit down with a drink and people-watch.
- B Buy as much stationery as you can afford.
- C Go straight to a shop selling LEGO® or craft materials.
- D Look at the centre map and plan a route that will take you to all your favourite shops.

You are part of a team at school doing an enterprise project (where you make and sell a new product). What role do you take?

- A Advertising the product to anyone who will listen.
- B Team leader.
- C Designing and making the product.
- D Planning the different stages of production, so the product is ready on time.

Everyone in your class is helping at the school fair. What job do you volunteer for?

- A Helping in the first aid tent.
- B Running a second-hand book stall.
- C Running a stall selling things that you've made.
- D Being part of the event organisation team.

You are stuck at home all weekend in the rain. How do you choose to spend your day?

- A Talking to friends.
- B Reading and watching documentaries.
- C Playing games like Minecraft or Stardew Valley.
- D Organising what you are going to do next weekend when the weather is better.

You need to do some voluntary work every Saturday for the next three months.
Which of these would you choose?

- A First aid training.
- B Tutoring younger children.
- C Upcycling old clothes or furniture for a charity shop.
- D Organise a fund-raising event.

You have arrived at a big event at a stadium (like a sports match or a concert) with your family.
What do you do while you're waiting for the event to start?

- A Make sure you know where the exits and fire extinguishers are.
- B Keep your family occupied by playing games.
- C Look around at the building and think about how it was built.
- D Read the programme to find out about how the event was organised.

This afternoon, you will be baking with a young child. How do you prepare?

- A Chat to the child about how to stay safe when baking.
- B Bookmark some recipes.
- C Making cookie cutters in the shapes of the child's favourite animals.
- D Get everything out of the cupboards and lay it all out on the table.

You are planning your birthday celebration. Where do you want to go with your friends?

- A A theme park.
- B A museum.
- C On a cooking course.
- D An escape room.

Have you finished and counted up how many of each letter you have chosen? Great! Now see the next page for your results...

If you got mostly A...

You thrive under pressure and enjoy being close to the action. You enjoy meeting all sorts of different people. You could be amazing as a hero who protects people, especially in emergencies.

There are lots of different roles you could do.

Check out Protect Stage 3 to find out more about which might suit you.

If you got mostly B...

You like to keep busy and love learning. You have plenty of patience and never give up.

You could be a brilliant hero who educates people in school, college or university.

There are lots of different roles you could do.

Check out Educate Stage 3 to find out more about which might suit you.

If you got mostly C...

You are creative and enjoy using your hands to make things. You are interested in how things are designed or built. You could be amazing as a hero who provides the things we need.

There are lots of different roles you could do.

Check out Provide Stage 3 to find out more about which might suit you.

If you got mostly D...

You are well-organised and enjoy planning how to do things as efficiently as possible. You could put these skills to good use by becoming a hero who helps to supply things to the people who need them.

There are lots of different roles you could do.

Check out Supply Stage 3 to find out more about which might suit you.

