

VOL. CXCVIII.

1587.
Feb. 23. 68. John Otes to Wm. Carnsewe. All the men at St. Just's have Penrose. been fully paid. Pay and charges due at Penrose mine; the men there will work no longer till they are paid. Some of the ore there has been stolen. The lead ore there is so fine some suppose it to be tin. Thanks for the news of London and the Queen of Scots.
- Feb. 24. 69. The Council to the Lords Lieutenants of the Inland counties.
Greenwich. Directions to be given to their deputy lieutenants to carry into immediate execution the preceding orders for the defence of the realm.
- Feb. 14? 70. Note of the order of proceeding with the several counties in the musters and training.
- Feb. 24. 71. Edward Baeshe to Lord Burghley. Sends a note of the London. expenditure of 5,000*l.* and that he required 4,000*l.* more for the provision of victuals; having been ordered by the Lord Admiral to victual 1,030 men for three months and to revictual 520 men, under Mr. Palmer, for two months. Incloses, 71. *I. Declaration of the expenditure of 5,000*l.*, parcel of the warrant of 12,512*l.* 11*s.* 8*d., for victualling the Navy.
- Feb. 25. 72. The Mayor, Aldermen, and Sheriff of Newcastle-on-Tyne, to Newcastle. Walsyngham. Desire him to speak to the Council for liberation of 18 of their ships, laden with coal and other merchandise, stayed at Newhaven and other ports of France.
- Feb. 26. 73. Lord Burghley to same. Solicits his advice with respect to Robert Lytton's proposed marriage with Mrs. Smith, widow of Smith the mercer.
- Feb. 26. 74. Arthur Hopton to the Council. His proceeding in executing Westwood. the orders for supplying the markets within the Hundred of Blithing, co. Suffolk, with grain. Distressed state of the country; upwards of 500 persons are relieved every week by charity.
- Feb. 27. 75. Earl of Pembroke to the same. States his objections to the Salisbury. arrangement that Sir Geo. Carey should take the musters and appoint the captains within the hundreds in Wiltshire, selected for the defence of the Isle of Wight.
- Feb. 28, 76. Examination of Robert Willyams, alias Bricklebanke. The cause of his going over to France under the name of Willyams.
Received his passport from Mr. Berden.
- Feb. 28. 77. Tho. Dabrygecourt, Sheriff of Warwickshire, to the Council.
Longdon Hall. Certifying the order taken by the Justices of Peace for the supply of the markets with corn. Incloses,
77. *I. The certificate of the Justices of Peace within the Hundred of Kington, of their proceeding in executing the orders of Council for the supply of the markets with grain.
Signed by Sir Tho. Lucy and Richard Verney.*